

As we mark Saint George's day, the patron saint of our beloved Constantinian Order, I send my best wishes and greetings to all knights and dames, and to all those who collaborate with them, on what is such an important date for our Order.

As we all know, the healthcare situation that has affected and continues to affect us all has forced the Order to adapt to this new reality. As a consequence, the traditional investiture ceremonies, organised by the Royal Deputations of the different countries, have been postponed or cancelled. I have, however, been able to witness the great spirit of service and the continuous will of all members in performing their duties and in fulfilling the permanent purposes of the Constantinian Order: The Cross, Faith and the Church.

Once again, to all I send my best wishes.
